SHOES OF THE FORGOTTEN

This is an educational and motivational event for the people at CCWF, celebrating the inspiration and knowledge of both former and current LWOPs. We hope to fill each backpack with information about what resources are available for people serving LWOP, organizational stickers, pins, pencils, one page informational resource about your organization and how you help fight side by side with our LWOP population. If your organization can not attend we hope you will allow us to bring in your resources. We heal together. Let us show these people they are not forgotten and not alone.

There will be connecting moments dedicated to healing and holding space for lost loved ones. There will be small break-out discussions humanizing individuals currently serving LWOP sentences and allowing them to share their experiences and their expertise. This will be followed by former LWOPs who will share their hope to those still inside.

Lunch and mingling will follow.

Donations will support
